

Royal Canadian Mounted Police Gendarmerie royale du Canada

Commanding Officer Commandant divisionnaire

July 23, 2024

Dear Warden Roulston:

The Nova Scotia RCMP received thousands of calls for service in 2023. Our teams advanced hundreds of investigations and laid charges for many serious offences, including sexual assault, human trafficking, illicit drugs and homicide.

As the provincial police, and through collaboration with the Government of Nova Scotia, municipalities and First Nations communities we serve, we tailor our crime reduction strategies from year-to-year.

We've recently published a web-based annual review (<https://rcmp.ca/en/nova-scotia/corporate-information/publications-and-manuals/your-nova-scotia-rcmp-2023>) that highlights several operational files that demonstrate our work to combat gender-based violence; hate crime; human trafficking; internet child exploitation; and serious and organized crime. It also includes examples of special projects, our involvement in community events across the province, and policing data.

Although this report offers only a small snapshot of our day-to-day policing work, it reflects our employees' dedication to serve and protect Nova Scotians.

I hope you find the 2023 review interesting and informative.

Sincerely,

Assistant Commissioner Dennis Daley
Commanding Officer
Nova Scotia RCMP
